

THE Local LIST BERLIN

Being a local isn't just defined by your postal code, but more importantly by the everyday experiences that make your neighborhood special and distinct. From your favorite cup of coffee to your go-to haven for inspiration—its these pockets of comfort and discovery that make up Berlin's eclectic flavor.

These hidden gems and neighborhood treasures await their longtime patrons and warmly welcome visitors from afar. We believe these experiences enrich and delight any travel experience, whether your trip began next door, or you've come by car, boat, or plane. Airbnb has collected these local favorites from our Berlin community and featured them in The Local List, a limited-edition map guide, beautifully illustrated by Berlin-based artist, Doro Petersen.

We hope you share this map with guests in your home, visitors to your neighborhood, and use it yourself to discover or rediscover in your own backyard.
