RE: Request to Carnival Corporation dated March 14, 2013

Dear Chairman Rockefeller:

Thank you for your letter dated March 14, 2013, regarding the Carnival Triumph incident. As you may recall, we met in your offices less than one year ago to discuss the cruise industry. You asked me about our safety and environmental policies, as well as about the taxation of our industry. We had a lengthy and frank discussion of these issues and I left with the impression that you were satisfied with my responses.

I note that your letter seems to cover much of the same ground we discussed at our meeting. Nonetheless, I have asked Captain James Hunn, Senior Vice President Corporate Maritime Policy at Carnival Corporation, to respond to the questions presented in your letter and to provide you with any new information available since our meeting.

I assure you, as I did during our discussions, that we remain committed to the safety and comfort of our guests and we are proud of our ability to provide millions of people with safe, fun and memorable vacation experiences.

Sincerely,

Micky Arison
